

Chessman Gets 60-Day Stay All Great Britain Hails Birth Of Baby Prince

Brown Acts After State Dept. Note

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California's governor, stirred by world reaction and a telegram from the U. S. State Department, spared Caryl Chessman's life Friday when he was less than 10 hours and a dozens steps from death in the gas chamber.

A jangling telephone outside the green-walled execution room flashed word at 12:05 a.m. from Gov. Edmund G. Brown in the executive mansion at Sacramento to Warden Fred Dickson: "You can send him back upstairs. I am going to grant him a 60-day reprieve."

It was the eighth stay in 12 years for the 38-year-old Chessman, under a double death sentence since 1948 from Los Angeles for lovers' lane crimes which included sex depravity but no loss of life.

Gov. Brown, who previously had refused clemency, said he took the action:

1. After a telegram from the U. S. State Department said there might be hostile demonstrations during President Eisenhower's visit to Uruguay and Brazil if Chess-man were executed.

2. Because he wants the State Legislature, which meets Feb. 29 to consider doing away with the death penalty.

Weighty Verdict

Brown told a news conference Friday he gave great weight in his decision to a telegram from Asst. Secretary of State Roy R. Rubottom Jr., adding: "Between you and me it was the hand of God."

It was among thousands of telegrams the governor received Thursday. There were far too many to open quickly, and "It was the hand of God that this one would be picked out after I left the office," Brown said.

"I weighed this execution against its proposed effect on what we are doing throughout the entire world," he said.

Appeals have poured in from all over the world asking that Chessman's life be spared, largely on the contention his nearly 12 years on death row was punishment enough for a crime not involving a death.

New Date

Friday, the Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano, which had joined in the plea for mercy, commented on the reprieve: "No human heart can believe that the convict's existence in death row was prolonged for another two months only to feel the deadly gas."

A legal authority in the state attorney general's office, Arlo Smith a deputy, said it would be possible for a jurist to set the new execution date for 61 days from now.

Brown told his news conference that three men due to die in the San Quentin chamber in March will get reprieves and no one will be executed until the Legislature has acted on a bill to abolish capital punishment.

Chessman had just wound up three hours of conversation with Warden Dickson in the special death cell when the telephone call came. He went back and told the prisoner: "Caryl, the governor has granted you a reprieve."

"Warden, you wouldn't kid me, would you?" the denim-clad convict asked incredulously.

"No, I wouldn't kid you about anything like that," Dickson assured.

Chessman stood tense and trembling.

"Just a second, let me get myself together," he asked, "because actually I had resigned myself that this is it."

He managed a request that Dickson thank the governor for him—then was led back up to cell 23 on the sixth floor. That is one of two rooms where Chessman has written three published books, a fourth now impounded, and scores of legal briefs in a fight that has gone 15 times to the U. S. Supreme Court.

End of Capital

"I think this is the beginning of the end of capital punishment in California," said one of Chessman's attorneys, George T. Davis, on hearing of the governor's action.

Davis, in a previously scheduled television debate Thursday night with a state assemblyman on capital punishment, wound up by appealing personally to the governor.

Brown took the only avenue still left open for Chessman's escape from execution.

Earlier, both the U. S. Supreme Court and the California Supreme Court had closed legal doors. The state court, by twice voting 4-3 against clemency, made it impossible for Brown to commute the sentence to life imprisonment. Under California law, the State Supreme Court must concur with the governor in cases where the condemned person has a previous felony record.

Papers in France, Denmark and Norway carried banner headlines.

Chessman was sentenced to death for kidnapping and robbery with bodily harm. This was the jury's judgment of testimony that Chessman twice forced women out of parked cars in Los Angeles lovers' lanes, took them to his car and forced them into abnormal sex acts. He also robbed them and their escorts.

Although Gov. Brown has called the evidence of guilt against Chessman overwhelming, the convict still insists he is innocent.

LONDON (AP)—A baby prince was born Friday to Queen Elizabeth II. Bells, guns, and bonfires signaled the nation's rejoicing at the safe delivery of the child, the first infant born to a reigning British monarch in 103 years.

Both mother and son, Elizabeth's third child, were doing well.

The little newcomer becomes second only to his brother, Prince Charles II, in the line of succession to the throne which Elizabeth assumed in 1952. Princess Anne, 9, drops back to third place.

"It's a boy!" exclaimed Prince Philip, grinning happily.

The proud father's words were repeated around the land.

Church bells pealed at this announcement from Buckingham Palace that ended anxiety over a somewhat difficult, 30-hour confinement: "The Queen was safely delivered of a son at 3:30 p.m. today. Her majesty and the infant prince are both doing well."

2,000 Cheer

A crowd of more than 2,000 cheered wildly at the palace gates as a palace official pinned up the handwritten bulletin.

A carnival air swept London. Congratulations — with President Eisenhower's among the first — streamed in.

A ceremonial flag of red, blue and gold—24 feet by 12—replaced the royal standard over the palace to mark the birth of the first baby to a reigning British monarch since Princess Beatrix was born to Queen Victoria in 1857.

A 21-gun salute boomed at Windsor Castle, one of the oldest royal homes. The Royal Navy gave the traditional order "splice the mainbrace," which meant that every navy man got a free tot of rum.

Inside the palace, Prince Philip joined the Queen's physicians and other attendants in a champagne toast.

"The baby's weight and his name remained temporarily undisclosed.

The expectation is that he will be named James at his christening in about four weeks. A palace spokesman said there would be no announcement concerning the weight until Saturday.

The mother, expected to rest now for three or four days, is 33.

The birth came more than 30 hours after Queen Elizabeth called in her doctors at the first labor pangs Thursday morning. The birth announcement was signed by obstetrician John Peel, who had spent the night at the palace, and her physicians, Sir John Weir and Lord Evans.

Philip Visits

Prince Philip, 38, visited the maternity room overlooking the palace gardens immediately after the birth.

Soon he returned to the Queen with Princess Anne, who had had school lessons as usual at the palace with two young friends, Prince Charles, heir to the throne, was driven in from his boarding school outside London to see his new brother Friday evening.

Assuming Prince Charles eventually gets the throne, grandchildren of his infant brother probably will be the first to bear the royal surname Mountbatten-Windsor, which Elizabeth adopted Feb. 8 for some of her descendants.

The Queen's decision added Prince Philip's name, Mountbatten, to the Queen's own name of Windsor, for her great-grandchildren out of the direct line of succession. Royal princes and princesses in the direct line do not use a surname.

'K' Operates Pile-Driver In Indonesia

BOGOR, Indonesia (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, in high good humor, operated a pile-driver Friday.

Setting out on a 1,400-mile tour of Indonesia, the Soviet Premier stopped in the outskirts of Jakarta, the capital, where a 100,000-seat stadium is being built with aid of a seven million dollar Soviet loan for the 1962 Asian Games.

Posing in a white construction helmet the Premier yanked a rope and set the pile-driver in action, ramming home the 100th foundation pillar and spraying cameramen with steam.

Khrushchev was spending the night at President Sukarno's presidential summer palace, here in the cool 870-foot hills.

Saturday he heads for Bandung through rebel-infested territory and Indonesia is taking extraordinary precautions for his safety.

Soviet security guards were reported concerned about the unsettled conditions in the area through which he has to travel.

Bandung, scene of the Afro-Asian Conference of 1955 is the third stop on Khrushchev's 12-day tour of Indonesia.

Khrushchev's visit has raised openly expressed hopes among Indonesians of more economic aid from the Soviet Union.

Boy, 15 Months, Killed In Fire

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A 15-month-old boy was killed yesterday in a fire at his grandmother's home.

The child, Lawrence Woods, had been playing in a living room of the North Philadelphia home with his brother, Joseph, 3. The older boy ran to the grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Robinson, 63, in the kitchen and told her the living room was afire. The flames cut off access to the lot.

Mrs. Robinson told investigators she thought the children had been playing with matches.

Defense Secretary Orders Probe Of Military Manuals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. Friday ordered a sweeping review of military training manuals and publications.

The Pentagon chief took the action in noting that some service publications have drawn public fire lately including matters "inappropriate to military training."

Further, Gates said, some of them contained "glaring inaccuracies" and lacked good taste or common sense.

Question Father In Bombing

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The father of a Negro student of integrated Central High School apparently was questioned by authorities Friday about the bombing of his home.

Police and the FBI broadened their investigation in the tightest secrecy after two other Negroes had been charged with the crime.

They would not say whether Cartelou Walls was being questioned but his attorney showed up at the police station and said he was there to represent him.

Walls' 16-year-old daughter, Carlotta, is one of five Negroes attending Central High School.

Maceo Antonio Binns Jr., 31-year-old handyman, and Herbert deli Mont, 17-year-old student of Horace Mann High School for Negroes, were charged earlier in the day.

"Possibly"

Police Chief Gene Smith would only say that Walls "possibly" was being questioned about the bombing. Walls was away from home when the bomb exploded the night of Feb. 9.

Authorities remained silent about possible motives behind the explosion which Prosecutor Frank Holt said was caused by three sticks of dynamite.

At their arraignment in Municipal Court Friday Binns and Mont pleaded innocent and their case was passed until Tuesday to give Holt time to file charges against them directly in Circuit Court. They are held without bond.

Defiantly Defends AF Textbook

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The Air Force civilian employee who wrote a controversial military manual on communism and religion defiantly defended the textbook Friday.

He is Homer H. Hyde, 54, a short, gray-haired man with 18 years service with the Air Force.

The manual, prepared for non-commissioned officers, came under attack by the National Council of Churches, which claimed the textbook says church groups have been infiltrated by Communists.

Hyde told reporters Friday that, "I felt the manual could not be completely effective as a tool for combating communistic activities with which the NCO might come in contact either on or off duty unless he had all the evidence of such activity available to him that it was possible to provide."

Asked if he would write the manual the same way if he should write it again, Hyde said, "I could not answer that question at this time."

Hyde is a member of the Grace Baptist Temple of San Antonio. Texas Baptist headquarters reported that the church is not affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention, the major Southern Baptist group. This convention refuses to affiliate with the National Council of Churches.

The Air Force earlier withdrew the manual and repudiated it.

437 Keystone Draft Quota

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state selective service system set 437 men as the state's draft quota for April.

It is the lowest call of the year so far and compares with 531 for April 1959. The January call was 591, February 476 and March 452.

Income Tax Men Urged To Eye Payola

WASHINGTON (AP)—A suggestion that federal income tax collectors take a close look at music record company payments to radio-TV disc jockeys was made Friday as House payola investigators wound up the current phase of their inquiry.

The hearings, which centered this week mainly on Boston, are to be resumed in mid-March.

The suggestion to tax collectors came from Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) after the House Legislative Oversight Subcommittee heard testimony by Donald Dumont of Boston, co-owner of the Dumont Record Distributing Corp.

$8,500 in Cash

Dumont testified he handed out $8,500 in cash, in addition to gifts of liquor and clothing, to Boston disc jockeys. He said he felt that was the only way of getting an even break for his firm's records, and insisted the payments were for services performed.

Moss said he questioned very strongly whether such payments could be considered legitimate business expenses for income tax purposes.

Record distributors have told the subcommittee they listed payments to disc jockeys on their books as advertising, promotion or selling expenses. They have consistently denied that the payments constituted payola, or undercover payments for plugging songs on the air.

Irving Lewis, New York officer of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, testified that the Internal Revenue Service already had been in touch with his union to determine whether disc jockeys have been reporting those payments.

Some disc jockeys called before the subcommittee have told of including such gifts in their income tax returns.

Overdue 90 Days Says Accounts

HARRISBURG (AP) — Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith said yesterday the Norristown State Hospital has failed to report to the Justice Department more than $333,000 in overdue bills to patients.

An audit report as of May 31 said the accounts were overdue by more than 90 days. In such a situation, the law requires turning them over to the Justice Department for legal action.

Photos Omitted Due To Trouble With Engraver

DUE to a mechanical failure, The Daily Record is unable to use all of the photographs intended for publication in today's edition.

The trouble developed last night in the engraving machine used to "cut" the pictures for use on the press. It was impossible to make the necessary repairs due to the lateness of the hour, so a number of photos had to be withdrawn.

The Daily Record regrets its inability to provide its usual complete coverage of up-to-the-minute news in pictures.

Discoverer Explodes; Rains Debris

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The trouble-plagued Discoverer satellite series Friday had its most spectacular failure — a mighty explosion directly over this space base that had all hands diving for cover from raining debris.

The towering, white two-stage missile veered off course toward populated areas a few seconds after being launched and the Air Force deliberately destroyed it directly over the launch complex.

A huge orange fireball flared in the sky. It was blotted by a mushrooming cloud of black smoke from which sailed missile chunks the size of automobiles.

"Take cover! Take cover! Take cover!" blared the warning over the base loudspeaker.

Officers and men scrambled under tables, desks and autos. Some stood tensed, looking up, ready to dodge if a piece headed for them.

No Injuries

There were no reported injuries and no damage.

The 78-foot Thor-Agena rose at 12:16 p.m. from its seaside launch pad for what was intended to be the 10th try at a vital Air Force goal, orbiting a satellite then recovering its space capsule.

As the missile rose it trembled and wobbled when it got a few hundred feet up. Then, instead of nosing over toward the south and its intended polar orbit, it veered northeast toward the seacoast towns of Santa Maria and San Luis Obispo, a score or more miles away.

Fifty-six seconds after launch, at an altitude of 20,000 feet, the range safety officer destroyed it.

Six Discoverers have achieved orbit but so far, due to failures of various kinds, no capsule has been recovered.

Explosion Proves Fatal

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — A feed company employee was killed Friday in an explosion that blew him 30 feet onto the roof of the plant and to a railroad freight car.

The victim was Stanley Glick, 23, of Washington Boro RD 1, an employee of Miller and Bushong Inc., of nearby Rohrerstown.

Deputy Coroner Hiram L. Wiest said Glick was removing a cover from a 30-foot high tank when it blew off and struck him.

The tank is used to store animal fat which is added to the feed.

Denies Charge

After one Cuban allegation last month, press officer Lincoln White said on Jan. 13 there was no sign of any American-based plane dropping fire bombs on Cuba. He described as absurd any implication of U. S. government involvement.

Until Cuban authorities can present incontrovertible evidence to the contrary, the United States vigorously rejects the allegation, White said then.

U. S. officials got the evidence this time. Castro accepted a U. S. Embassy offer to send a team of experts to the crash site.

In his job at the United States, Castro suggested Uncle Sam's defenses against Soviet missiles cannot be worth much if the United States is unable to detect and stop a little plane flying to Cuba.

Red-Face U. S. Bows To Castro

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, with a red face, admitted Friday that a small private plane had raided Cuba from a U. S. airfield. It apologized to Prime Minister Fidel Castro, bitter critic of America.

The State Department ordered the top U. S. diplomat remaining in Havana, Daniel Braddock, to "express to the Cuban government this government's sincere regrets that the plane managed to escape the vigilance of our intensified airfield patrols" in Florida.

Washington acted quickly after its own check had confirmed a new Castro allegation about U. S.-based planes fire-bombing Cuban sugar fields.

Castro told a Cuban television audience the little craft had crashed Thursday while attacking a Cuban sugar mill.

He said the occupants, both killed, were Americans. Cubans named them as Robert Ellis Frost of Portland, Ore., and Robert Kelly of the U. S. Civil Air Patrol, not further identified.

Calls For End

Castro called for an end to this kind of action by raiders, who, he said, had destroyed 225,000 tons of sugar cane in 30 attacks this year.

State Department authorities had no further immediate identification of the two fliers. It said their inquiries disclosed that the plane had taken off from Miami Airfield near Miami. It believed the plane had loaded up with bombing material at another unidentified airfield south of Miami before making its run on the Cuban sugar mill.

Washington and Havana have been at odds over Castro's anti-American statements and seizure of U. S. properties in Cuba. The United States has recalled its ambassador to Havana, Philip W. Bonsal.

Friday's development came as a double humiliation to the State Department because it had scoffed at previous Castro charges of U. S. based incendiary raiders and announced supposedly tight checks against any illegal flights from Florida.

Symington Renews 'Mum' Attack On Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The charge that President Eisenhower called despicable — that his administration has misled the American people about their defensive strength — was renewed in the Senate Friday.

It was made again by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), one of the most persistent critics of administration defense policies, and it touched off a free-wheeling debate with Republicans pitted against Democrats.

Symington, declaring "some unpleasant facts well-known to the Communists are kept from the American people," said the people of this country are entitled to the truth.

"Above all, they are entitled not to be misled by false statements," he said.

Disservice

"It is a disservice to our country to suggest that the facts are as we wish they were, rather than as they are."

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, who like Symington is a potential candidate for this year's Democratic presidential nomination, joined in the attack.

Johnson said facts about U. S. defenses have not been presented accurately to the public.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) charged that, "The administration put a balanced budget ahead of a balanced national defense." Symington said an "absolute minimum" of 2 1/2 billion dollars should be added to the 11-billion-dollar defense budget.

Eisenhower, who hotly denied similar charges at his news conference last Wednesday, will have an opportunity to discuss the matter further in a 15-minute radio-TV speech he is scheduled to make at 6:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time Sunday.

For the time being, the White House said it had no comment.

The administration defense was led in Friday's Senate debate by Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, senior Republican on the Armed Services Committee.

Saltonstall flatly denied that Eisenhower or any top defense officials ever intended to mislead the public about relative U. S.-Soviet military strength.

He also rejected Democratic contentions that this country's defenses had been sacrificed in an effort to cut spending or balance the budget.

Stated To Succeed

Viggo Kampmann, minister of finance and like Hansen a Socialist, is slated to become premier. He has been serving as acting leader of the government since Hansen was hospitalized.

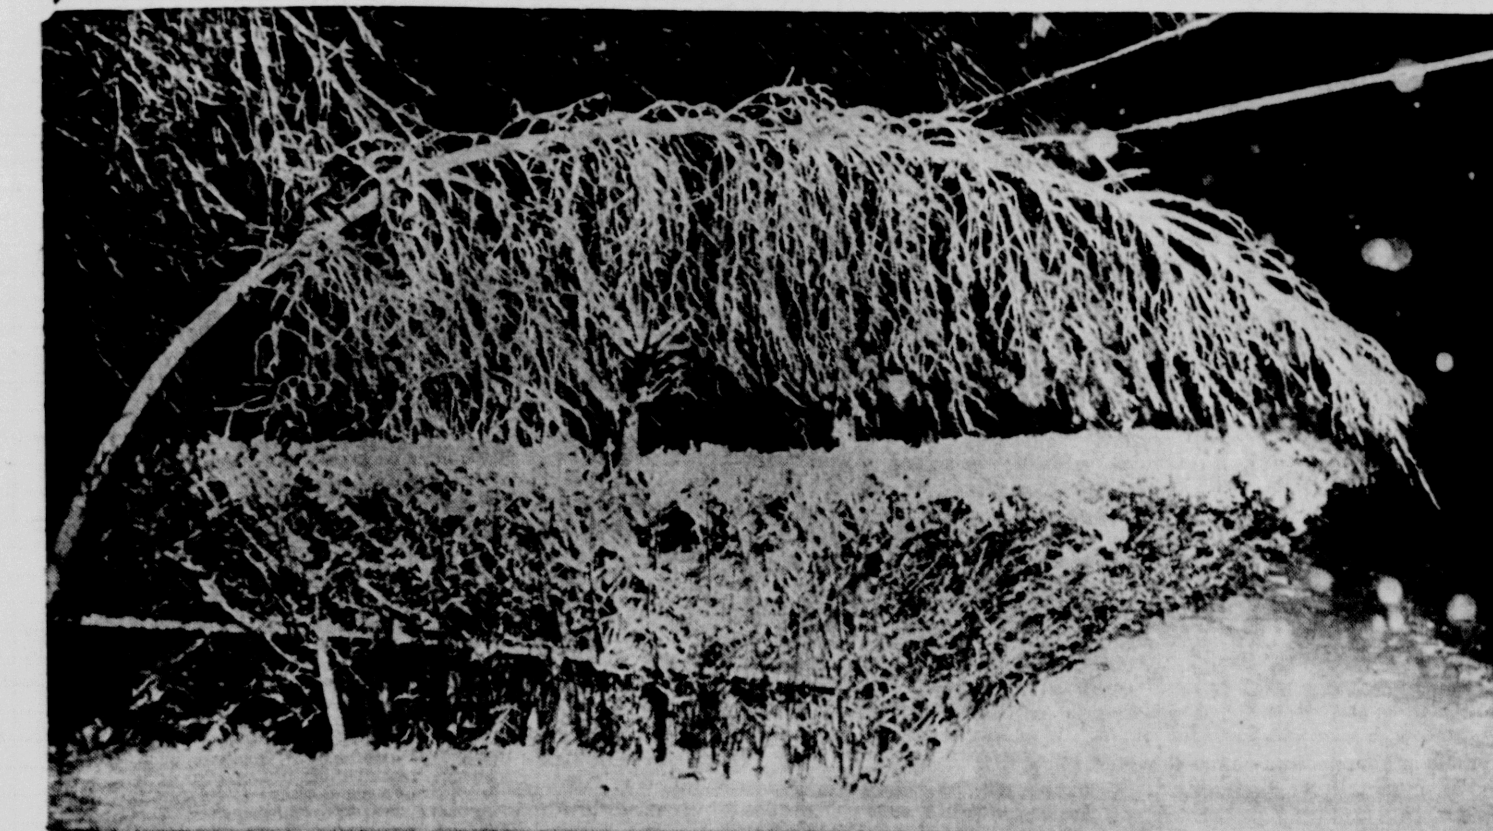

Hansen was the only real vote-getter among the Socialist leaders and his death may give a sharp advantage to the big non-Socialist bloc of Agrarians and Conservatives. Parliamentary elections are scheduled to be held this year, possibly in the spring.

Good Morning!

Paul Ends Third Journey

By Newman Campbell
IN HIS introduction to this lesson, the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes: "In this lesson we come to the end of what is known as the third great missionary journey that Paul carried on his extensive ministry in the city of Ephesus. Paul would be apprehended by Roman officers, and for the next five years would not be altogether a free man. He would undergo a trial in Jerusalem, three trials in Caesarea, and then be taken to Rome as a prisoner. We are quite confident that Paul was aware at this time of the approaching end of his public ministry. Though he may not have known exactly how it was to terminate, one thing he was determined to do and that was to go to Jerusalem that spring in time for the great feast of Pentecost."

Maureen and Alan Conley will play a piano duet as the special musical selection at the early service. Mrs. William Price directs the Junior Choir and Mrs. Warren Miller directs the Senior Choir with Miss Judy McCoy accompanying on the organ during the service.

Church nursery is provided under the care of Mrs. Kenneth Brutzman and Miss Barbara Wieboldt.

The Church School sessions will begin at 9:30.

The Third Session of the Membership Class will be held in the parsonage at 9:30 a.m.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference will begin at 4:30 p.m. Rev. Dr. Price Collins, district superintendent, will be in charge. Reports, surveying the work of the church in all fields for nine months, will be given. All stewards and trustees are urged to attend. The election for official board members for the conference year of 1960-61 will be held.

The Youth Fellowship will hold a "Booth Festival Workshop" in preparation for the coming Pocono Sub-District Youth Rally.

Services will be held at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. At the 9:30 a.m. service, the Rev. Charles A. Park, rector, will continue his series of talks on the nature of the Eucharist.

The High Places

Does the goal you're seeking seem as remote—as unattainable—as this snow-frosted mountain top? Does it seem, sometimes, as if you'll never get there? Are you on the verge of giving up?

Don't! Though your objective may seem light-years beyond your reach, if it's the right thing for you, God will help you to attain it, if you'll let Him. The teachings of His Church will help you find the patience and endurance you need to accept setbacks . . . and still keep trying.

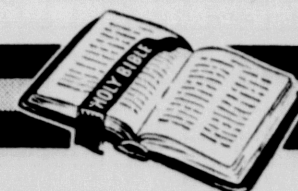

Don't try to climb to the top all by yourself. It's a lonely ascent. Let the Church help you, as it helped those who were here before you . . . and as it will help those who come after you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Biting Winds, Brisk Cold Assault Pocono Highways

BITING cold and brisk winds assaulted the Poconos yesterday following Thursday night's storm which left as much as seven inches of snow in some sections.

State Highways Dept. crews, on duty into the early morning hours yesterday, were hastily recalled as the wind began drifting highways shut.

Seven-Foot Drifts

The Monroe County office of the department had reports of seven-foot drifts in the Mt. Pocono area and five-foot drifts near Big Pocono.

Route 611, north of Stroudsburg, was reported blocked by drifting snow. Cider trucks and plows were directed to the scene.

Traffic was snarled by the drifts from Scotrun to Tannersville.

Temperatures — never above the 40-degree mark — dropped below freezing as night fell, increasing the discomfort of highway employees and others who had to be out of doors.

Service Interrupted

Some telephone service was reported still interrupted late yesterday. Other utilities apparently were unaffected.

Buses were reported running an hour late because of hazardous conditions.

Three Hours

State Police at Mt. Pocono reported the traffic jam on Route 611 lasted for about three hours from 7:30 p.m. Cars and trucks were stalled in the vicinity of Rhodes' Restaurant above Tannersville.

Troopers said traffic began to move again shortly after 10:30 p.m.

State Police at Fern Ridge reported Route 115 closed by drifts and said one-way traffic was in effect on several other roads in the area.

Large Sections Of State Paralyzed By Snow Storm

By The Associated Press

LARGE sections of Pennsylvania lay paralyzed Friday in the wake of a storm that combined snow, wind and rain to belt the state with its worst weather of the winter season.

A 175-mile stretch of the Pennsylvania Turnpike — from near Pittsburgh to Carlisle — was closed when thousands of motorists became stranded on the snow-clogged toll road.

Other highways and a large percentage of the rural roads in western Pennsylvania were impassable because of drifting snow and wind-fallen trees and utility poles.

Some communities were left without electric and telephone service. Classes were canceled in many rural and suburban area schools.

Three Deaths

Three deaths, one an electrocution, were blamed on the storm which swept into the state late Thursday night.

Snow accumulations ranged anywhere from two to 19 inches in varying parts of the state. Many sections that escaped the snow were drenched by more than an inch of rain.

Strong winds, clocked at up to 50 miles an hour, rushed through much of the state snapping utility poles, uprooting trees and smashing walls.

The Somerset County area received one of the hardest blows of the snow storm. Eight inches of new snow fell on an old accumulation to bring the total snow depth in that area to 18 inches.

It was in the Somerset area also that most of the turnpike travelers experienced their greatest trouble. Hotels, motels and restaurants were jammed with travelers who gave up trying to negotiate the toll highway.

In one area more than 4,000 persons jammed into two restaurants about a quarter of a mile east of Somerset. Police reported others just left their autos and struck out on foot to seek shelter.

A 28-year-old waitress, Doris Ganger, of Somerset, describing conditions in one restaurant, said: "Some people are asleep at the counters. Others are huddled on the floor. And some are just standing around talking. They're all pretty patient."

Traffic Jams

Traffic jams up to nine miles long were reported on the turnpike. Many of the jams resulted from tractor-trailers jack-knifing or just skidding sideways across the highway.

While the western end of the state battled with snow and wind, much of the eastern section was whipped with wind and rain. The Blue Ridge Mountains in the central part of the state seemed to separate the snow and the rain.

However, a seven-inch snowfall blanketed Scranton and the surrounding area in the extreme eastern part of the state Thursday night. Wilkes-Barre, just below Scranton, reported up to 14 inches of snow in mountain areas.

Loss of Power

Some of the communities reported totally or partially without electric power were Meyersdale, Somerset, Oriskany and Three Springs. Company officials said they hoped to have power restored by Friday night.

In northwestern sections of the state accumulations of up to 21 inches were reported. That included snow that fell over the weekend during another big winter storm.

McWilliams' Services Sunday

FUNERAL services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Lanterman funeral home, East Stroudsburg, for Mrs. Alice Frances McWilliams, 68, of Marshall's Creek, with Rev. Wesley Crowthers officiating.

Interment will be in the Middle Smithfield Presbyterian Cemetery.

Barrett Twp. Schools Off

PUPILS of Barrett Township schools had an unexpected holiday yesterday.

Classes were called off because of the heavy snow which fell throughout the Poconos Thursday night. Classes are scheduled to resume Monday.

Loeffler, Williams Get 50

Stroud Union Tips Northampton, 80-77

STROUD Union got in the final nip in a nip-and-tuck go last night and downed Northampton 80-77 at Northampton.

Ray Loeffler and Todd Williams teamed for 50 points, with Loeffler scoring 26 and Williams 24.

Loeffler also scored the bucket that led the game with only a minute left. Williams missed a foul shot with the score 78-75 but Loeffler tapped the ball in to put the winners ahead by five.

Last Ditch
The Konkrete Kids got a last ditch bucket but Strouds had the ball when the game ended.

Both clubs had fantastic nights from the foul line. The Mountaineers hit 26 of 38 tries and Northampton bagged 25 of 32 tries, 10 by Will Oplinger, who was the high point man of the game with 30 markers. Both clubs scored 22 points in the first period. Stroudsburg outscored the Kids 24-20 in the heat, to take a 46-42 half-time lead.

Third Period Tie
The losers evened the count at the three quarter mark, mostly on foul shots. The fouling cost the winners the services of Warren Loney, who picked up his fifth foul near the end of the frame. Leo Frailey fouled out in the last period.

Both clubs slackened the scoring pace in the final frame but Stroudsburg still got the best of it, 16-13.

John Martin added 12 points to the Mountie attack and Leo Frailey chipped in 11.

Shortie Gets 10
Barry Wogenrich, the shortest starter in the Lehigh Valley league hit 10 for Northampton.

In the junior varsity prelim, Northampton, playing with only five men, beat Stroud Union, 39-37.

Polanchak Hurt Three Events On Tap At ESSC Today

DICK Luce's East Stroudsburg State College basketball team gets a chance to reverse another hard luck decision tonight.

The Warriors meet Mansfield, the number three team in the State Teachers' Conference, at Eastburg at 8:30 p.m.

The swimming and wrestling teams go against Brooklyn Poly in 2 p.m. events.

Last Earlier
Earlier in the month, Mansfield, then the top team in the conference, beat the locals 88-83 in an overtime at Mansfield. The Warriors held a six-point lead late in the game, but Mansfield got the tying two points on a last second tap-in to send the game into overtime.

It was one of the seven ESSC losses in which it outshot the winners from the foul line. East Stroudsburg hit only seven foul shots while Mansfield bagged 18 free tosses.

John Polanchak twisted his ankle in practice yesterday and may miss tonight's game. Polanchak has been alternating between fifth and sixth man since the semester break.

Seek New Struck
The swim team, after being drubbed by West Chester, Wednesday, faces an equally tough opponent in Brooklyn Poly.

Dick Wolslayer and John Jacob, both beaten in the West Chester meet, will be out to start new win streaks. Wolslayer after losing in the opener to LaSalle won four straight 50 and 100-yard freestyle events.

Jacob was also a loser against LaSalle but the minute diver picked up four firsts in a row before tangling with West Chester.

Jim Reed's wrestler have been hot and cold and own a 3-6 mark. Bill Deibler, injured in the Shippenburg meet Wednesday, may not be able to work today.

Warriors Begin Spring Football Thursday

SOME 50 grid hopefuls are expected to turn out for "spring" football practice at East Stroudsburg State College Thursday.

Although college officials are not certain, it may be the first time that the school has held spring workouts.

Coach Jack Gregory will have four seniors, who completed their eligibility last fall, helping him with the coaching.

Split Work
Dick Zimmer and John Brunner will work with the backs and centers while Larry Crosswhite handles the guards and tackles and Joe Martino the ends.

The student coaching plan is a new program Gregory has set up at East Stroudsburg. He will assign two of the coaches to each of the teams in the first spring intra-squad game, March 12.

Gregory, who loses 10 seniors with graduation, will have 20 lettermen returning. Not all of the letter winners will be able to attend spring practice. Many of them are participating in other sports.

Gregory plans to hold one-day workouts at 4 p.m., weather permitting.

Hillman Scores 27

Cavaliers Bombed By Hillers, 92-70

FOUNTAINHILL, a tiger against East Stroudsburg, pounced on the Cavaliers again last night, 92-70.

In the first half of the Lehigh-Northampton League, the Hillers slammed the locals, 108-59.

Bill Hillman turned in his best performance of the year with 27 points and 15 rebounds but it was only an entry in the scorebook, as the losers never got closer than eight points to Fountainhill.

Two Foul Out
Hillman fouled out with slightly more than five minutes left in the game. John Hindman, who hit only five points, picked up his last foul with three minutes left.

Fountainhill jumped to a 10-0 lead and held it until Hillman scored a rebound shot with three and a half minutes left.

770 Pupils Saved As Fire Destroys Pittston School

PITSTON, Pa. (AP) — Fire swept swiftly through the St. John The Evangelist school Friday and destroyed the old, three-story structure minutes after its 770 pupils had been evacuated safely.

A malfunctioning borough alarm system delayed arrival of some firemen. And a lack of water pressure further hindered volunteers from area communities summoned in a general alarm.

The school, located near the center of Pittston, was this anthratic community's largest. It was a combination grade and high school.

Third Floor

The flames were discovered in a third floor room in the oldest section of the L-shaped building by Michael Grace, a student. He told the principal, Mother Anne, who was about to teach his English class.

The nun, mother superior of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary which operate the school, sent the children out and warned others in the building.

The borough alarm system has been out of order for some time.

Members of the first volunteer companies had to be reached by telephone.

Then they found the stream from their hoses would not reach the blazing third floor. The Kingston fire department was summoned and used its aerial ladder to attack the flames. A collapsing wall narrowly missed the Kingston firefighters.

The section in which the fire began was a brick-over wooden building built around the turn of the century. The rest of the building, of brick construction, was added about 1920.

Roof Given Way

The roof of the older section gave way under the weight of water.

Roads Head Reorganizes Operations

HARRISBURG (AP)—Highways

Secretary Park H. Martin reorganized his top-level engineering operations yesterday, dividing the state into three regions under the direction of regional engineers.

The change was approved last week by the State Executive Board which authorized creation of the three new salaries positions.

Martin appointed Leonard J.

Curran, district engineer at Pittsburgh, to head the new western region, comprising 18 counties;

Walter Fries, department plans engineer, as regional engineer for the 25-county central region, and

Raymond F. Campbell, Martin's

special assistant, as head of the eastern region's 25 counties.

The three regional engineers will work directly under Fred S. Poorman, deputy secretary-engineering.

Evaluate Field

Their job will be to evaluate field activities on the basis of department policies, standards, programs and construction schedules,

Martin said, recommending any changes necessary.

The secretary added that the work of the regional engineers will supplement, not replace, the work of the 11 district organizations.

Robert Klueber, Harrisburg

district engineer, was named to replace Curran in the Pittsburgh district and James C. Whaley, asstant district engineer at Scranton, was appointed to succeed Klueber in Harrisburg.

Frank Hollister, department budget examiner, was named special assistant to replace Campbell.

Martin said the reorganization is in line with recommendations of the Automobile Safety Foundation, which studied the department's operations in 1958 and 1959.

East Stroudsburg Junior High Music Festival Outstanding

By Sally Ferrebee

THOSE two East Stroudsburg music men, choral director Kenneth Raessler, and Junior Band Director Robert F. Zeller, proved that seventy-six trombones aren't really a necessity when it comes to leading a big parade!

They trotted out the combined talents of a 135-voice chorus and an 85-piece band to make the rafters ring with the sound of music last night in the auditorium of the J. W. Hill Jr. High School. It was an opportunity for Mommys and Daddies, Grandmas and Grandpas and assorted aunts, uncles, brothers and sisters to see first hand the results of those hours spent at a piano, a horn, or a drum!

Had it been worth all those sighs, those arguments of why practicing was worth while — not to mention the precious pennies for an instrument—lessons, and music? I could tell by the applause that every accolade said yes, yes, yes!!! These scrubbed faces, shining with excitement were yesterday's marble champions and the mothers of countless Gini dolls! Tonight they were young people, who showed the promise of a great tomorrow—not only for Monroe County, but for the youth of America!!!

The program, artistically arranged gave full sway to all of their varied talents! Opening with the selective Ninth grade ensemble—the Choralists of tomorrow—who sailed thru to A Wild Rose, and Sleep Kentucky Babe—then danced to their own accompaniment a Mexican Folk Song, Chalapancas and finished with a rousing chorus of When The Saints Go Marching In!

Joined By Others
They were joined on the risers at this point by the other 22 voices of the Junior High mixed chorus! These voices, accomplished beyond their years due to Mr. Raessler's fine and sensitive direction reverently handled Hymn to Man, There Is A Balm In Gilead, American Hymn to man, and the last number of their program segment, Now The Day Is Over! In between, they told of that Great Getting Up Morning and gave attention to a Deaf Woman's Courtship—this very cleverly enacted by a prematurely grey young woman whose hearing was anything but poor when the suitor proposed in a whisper.

Naturally, every program holds a favorite for someone. Mine was the medley of Get Along Little Doggies, and Zulu King — and every one of the young people wore cowboy hats and looked every inch like the real McCoy! It was when they sang "Tell Me Why" that I felt myself slip away to a camp fire long ago at camp, and I could feel the warmth of the camp fire, its pine needle smokey odor, and could smell the aroma of a burned marshmallow on the end of a stick that I'd striped of bark with a girl scout knife only moments before! I had a feeling some day they'd perhaps remember this song with the same nostalgic feeling of comradeship that only doing something you love with people you love can bring!

Band Ready
As the youngsters filed into their seats the curtain parted and there was the Junior Band — 85 strong and rarin' to go! At this point Mr. Raessler and Mr. Zeller were presented with gifts in appreciation of their work which they proudly opened to the delight of the audience! Both proved to be sweaters, which I have a feeling these fellows are going to wear often and proudly, too!

Then in seconds, Mr. Zeller had the Band swinging through Shredia's La Bauda Nascent March with such precision that John Philip Sousa would have shouted Bravo if his cloud had been near enough! The Cathedral Canyon Overture followed with lovely muted effects that effectively proved the auspicious talent of each and every young musician! Two Chorales, familiar to all, Nearer My God To Thee, and Abide With Me but a beautiful sober note which broken only when the first of the soloists, Joseph Zacharias handled his trombone like the late great Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller in Air Valse.

Thrilling Moments
It was one of the truly thrilling moments in the program, for here was a young man with great ability! The band has an abundance of dedicated youngsters who take pride in their work! Timothy Cortright's solo, Beautiful Colorado, accompanied by Linda Stettler, was very well done, and Pedro — William Hay—well that was the show stopper! On a darkened stage the youngsters donned Mexican hats and serapes, and as calls of "Hey Pedro" pierced the darkness, one by one, striding with the percussion instruments, they started transporting the audience to Mexico.

Climax
And as a climax, a trumpet played by what looked like a hat took over! Under the hat was William Hay—and Hay, Pedro, was a scene stealer till the band decided to take a siesta, and it finished as it started! By that time someone could have said "Hey Pedro, it's snowing"—but it wouldn't have mattered! They were having a delightful time and applauded Hawley, Ades (no stranger to these parts as he's been arranging music for Fred Waring and Shawnee Press for years!) Chopsticks Rock! The Band and Chorus then joined forces for Elgar's Land of Hope and Glory—and it was a well chosen finale, for our land will live in glory if we have young people like these and men to guide them such as Ken Raessler and Bob Zeller!

To all the accompanists, the art committees and the chorus officers, go congratulations too, for a job well done!

There were a lot of shoes stuffed with newspapers under the radiators to dry last night, for going home was pretty slushy; but if you'd ask any mother or dad I'd be willing to give you odds that they'd swear they were walking on pink clouds under a sky of stars!

WHICH JOB WOULD YOU TAKE?

If you're like most of us, you'd take the job with the big salary and the bright future.

Many college teachers are faced with this kind of decision year after year. In fact, many of them are virtually bombarded with tempting offers from business and industry. And each year many of them, dedicated but discouraged, leave the campus for jobs that pay a fair, competitive salary.

Can you blame them?

These men are not opportunists. Most of them would do anything in their power to continue to teach. But with families to feed and clothe and educate, they just can't make a go of it. They are virtually forced into other fields.

In the face of this growing teacher shortage, college applications are expected to double within ten years, possibly sooner.

At the rate we are going, we will soon have a very real crisis on our hands.

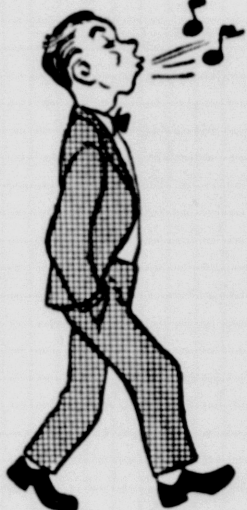

We must reverse this disastrous trend. You can help. Support the college of your choice today. Help it to expand its facilities and to pay teachers the salaries they deserve. Our whole future as a nation may depend on it.

It's important for you—and for your children—to know more about what the impending college crisis means. Write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.
